As we head onward to a new season, I want to thank the COA staff who continue to find new and different ways to offer programming, services and resources. Their creativity and ability to keep everything running smoothly has been inspirational. When they say trying to run a business during a pandemic is like building an airplane while you are flying it, believe me, it’s true!

I especially want to recognize our bus drivers, Al, Rick and Ted who each bring a tremendous amount of unrecognized expertise to the residents of Sandwich. Whether you are a senior or the adult child of a parent who is beginning to need some help; our drivers have introduced many passengers to a new kind of independence. Even with limitations, our transportation program has continued uninterrupted throughout the shutdown. All of the staff has stepped up to deliver meals, make wellness calls and connect older adults to activities, exercise and each other. Thanks to their hard work we are able to move to the next small steps in re-opening.

While the building remains closed to the public, we are slowly scaling up operations, first with outdoor events, then with limited services by appointment and later on small in person events. Please come see us at our drive through events and stay tuned via our emails and social media posts for any new events that become available between newsletters.

In October we will continue to offer online programming as well as small outdoor classes and events, like Parking Lot Bingo, as weather permits. Hint: Halloween won’t be cancelled! The next step of our reopening will include in person appointments for help with fuel assistance applications. Appointments are limited to fuel assistance related matters and will be subject to all COVID19 guidelines. As the weather grows colder, we plan to offer an indoor movie for very small groups, but at this time there is no set date for that event. As soon as we know we can safely offer the event, we will let you know. In the meantime, keep a list of movies you’d like to see!

Stay in touch, stay well and we will see you soon!
